I Have Seen A Thousand Faces . . .

A college is many things: buildings, location, tradition, but most of all it is people—students, faculty, administration, alumni, supporters.

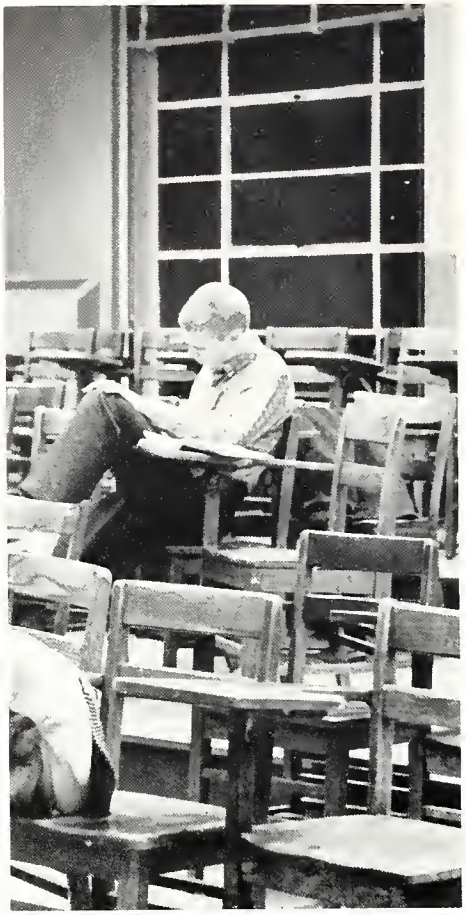
MVNGER



. . . the quiet solitude of an hour spent alone, the walks to class, the aroma of coffee in the cafeteria, the wintry wind, the cool shade of a tree, the clang of the bell, the steps in Munger, signing class cards, the umbrellas on threatening days, the greetings on the way to class, the nights you stayed up, the dances, the friendly competition, the pigeons roosting on Munger, buying tickets on the quadrangle, the lights on dormitory hill, the bustle of campaigns, the feelings before a quiz, the odor of labs, ballgames in Munger Bowl, the discussions in the dorms . . . I will have a thousand memories.

in memoriam

an exciting liberal,

Dr. Henry King Stanford has since he assumed the presidency of Birmingham-Southern College August 1, 1957, materially brightened the future of the school. Since he has been here, he has launched a ten-year, ten-million dollar development program for the college.

Dr. Stanford, who before coming to Southern was president of the Georgia State College for Women at Milledgeville, received degrees from Emory, the University of Denver, and New York University.

But most important, he has widened the scope of our outlook and gained our lasting respect for his abilities. His interest and participation in all phases of campus life; his vast experience and travels have stimulated Birmingham-Southern. He has gained the admiration and friendship of everyone he has encountered—students, faculty, administration and colleagues.

With students in the Cellar.

The Southern Ac

The 1960 Southern Accent represents a new approach to the problem of representing the life of the campus. This year the staff has attempted to bring about a few changes in the annual. Some of the most noticeable are the duo-tone beauty and intraductory sections, new division pages, cover, and full year coverage.

We have tried to do more than give an account of the year's activities. We attempted to give a feeling of "the something" that makes Southern's campus what it is. If in the future you see in this annual what you felt as a student, we will have accomplished our goal.

The Methodist Student Movement, 1959-60, has enjoyed many stimulating programs, and many enriching experiences. Under the leadership of Elvin Hilyer, the Movement through the year has been of value to the Methodist students, and others who have attended and have taken part in its activities. Each second week and fourth Tuesday night a fellowship supper is served followed by recreation and a program given by students, visiting speakers, or faculty members. This year, among those who visited were Mrs. O. D. Thomas, former State Director, and Senor McNeil, who has returned from missionary service in Latin America. Kappa Delta

Alpha Upsilon Chapter

Founded in 1930, Alpha Upsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta has had much success and this year was a profitable and fun-filled one for Southern's youngest sorority.

The busy season, beginning with the pledging of fifteen girls, was highlighted by the annual steak-fry, Founders' Day Banquet, coffees, entertaining at the Crippled Children's Hospital and the houseparty.

Kappa Delta participated in all areas of campus life. The presidents of both Amazons and Women's House Council and the editor of QUAD wore KD shields, while other sisters were members of Alpha Lambda Delta, Triangle Club, Phi Sigma Iota, Kappa Delta Epsilon and various religious organizations. Two KD's were selected cheerleaders; others worked on the HILLTOP NEWS and in College Theater; and the sorority boasted Intramural "Allstars" as well as a beauty and two favorites in the SOUTHERN ACCENT.

Spring quarter Kappa Delta capped outstanding honors when various members were elected president of Mortar Board, president of Alpha Lambda Delta, editor of the HILLTOP NEWS, SGA representatives and President's scholars.

Pi Beta Phi

Alabama Alpha Chapter

With the fourth highest Pi Beta Phi national award, the Vera Moss Bowl, the Alabama Alphas again combined campus activities and social events for a very successful and outstanding year.

The Arrow Girls were active in every phase of life on the Hilltop. They prided themselves in having members in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Honor Council, Triangle Club, Eta Sigma Phi, Mortar Board, Theta Sigma Lambda, College Theater, President's Scholars, Phi Chi Theta, and Intramural Council, including a senior manager and two sports managers.

Pi Phis were officers of KDE, Price Fellowship, Panhellenic Council, Westminister Fellowship, MSM and Alpha Lambda Delta. Wearers of the wine and blue were found working on the HILLTOP NEWS, SOUTHERN ACCENT, and QUAD staffs. Vice President and three division representatives of the Student Government Association were Pi Beta Phis. Two Pi Phis were cheerleaders and one was found in the beauty section of the annual.

During the year, the Alabama Alpha Chapter was pleased to serve as hostess for their National and Province Presidents, holding all-campus receptions for their honored guests. Pi Phis were proud of the fact that they won several "firsts" on campus—first place in Catspaw, first in basketball, first in scholarship for the sixth consecutive quarter, and first in badminton singles.

The Pi Phi social calendar was a crowded one indeed with a dinner dance honoring their eleven pledges at Vestavia Country Club; "Cookie Shines"; hikes, slumber parties; receptions; room parties and teas. The last exciting activity found on the calendar for spring quarter was their annual weekend houseparty held at Pensacola, Florida.

Zeta Tau Alpha

Alpha Nu Chapter

The Alpha Nu Chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha has had many successful years since its founding in 1922 and one of the best years for Southern's oldest sorority was 1959-60. After fall rush 15 girls were seen wearing the turquoise and silver pledge pin.

With spirits high, Zetas were tops in all areas of campus life. This year found Zetas being crowned "Miss Southern Accent" and "May Queen." Six of the fifteen beauty spots in the SOUTHERN ACCENT were captured by Zetas. In campus organizations and activities, Zetas were found as cheerleaders, members of the touring Chair, Executive Council members, Director of the Water Ballet, fraternity sweethearts and in College Theater. Honorary organizations found Zetas as presidents of Mortar Board, Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Chi Theta; and other Zetas as members of Kappa Delta Epsilon, Eta Sigma Phi, Triangle Club, President's Scholars and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

This year the Zeta social calendar included a Christmas Dinner Dance, Po-Boy Supper, spend-the-night parties and was climaxed by a houseparty in Florida.

Alpha Tau Omega

Beta Beta Chapter

Beta Beta Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega was founded at Southern in 1885 and since that time has played an active role in work and play on this campus. The fulfillment of the Chapter's dream was the greatest achievement for the Taus in 1959-60. The evidence of hard work and many hours of devoted time by the brotherhood now stands at 833 Greensboro Road.

Active in the social circle at BSC, Taus sponsored their annual Founder's Day, open house, the Sweetheart Dance, Hawaiian Party, and numerous coffees and teas as well as drop-in-parties. A Christmas party was given for the crippled children at the University Clinic and the yearly houseparty was held at Fort Walters, Florida.

In the sports arena ATO maintained the status of winners of the football trophy by playing a full winning season. In swimming and basketball the Taus played an active role and were well represented. Brother Ed Putnam was the top man in the paddleball competition. Lamar Odom and John Mackin played Varsity Basketball.

Many brother Taus played important roles in student organizations as officers. Grady Richardson was president of Canterbury Club, Dan Kitchens, president of Ministerial Association; Jim Smith, president of Theta Sigma Lambda; Elvin Hilyer, president of MSM; George Thomason and John Ed Reese are President Scholars; Nelson Lacy, treasurer of SGA.

Honors bestowed on brothers this year were: ODK, Dan Kitchens, Charles Reynolds, Jim Smith; Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Henry Golson, Elvin Hilyer, Dan Kitchens; Sigma Iota, Charles Storrs. The most important honor paid to Alpha Tau Omega is our current sweetheart, Miss Carolyn Suttle, who represents the love of "dear old gold and blue."

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Alabama Iota Chapter

Alabama Iota ventured into its eighty-second year with the pledging of twenty-five men.

Throughout the year brothers participated in every phase of campus life, and held the presidencies of the following organizations: The Student Government Association, Men's Dorm Council, Phi Eta Sigma, Eta Sigma Phi, Interfraternity Council, Triangle Club, Newman Club, Omicron Delta Kappa, Price Fellowship, the Ministerial Association and the Circle "K" Club. Also "Sig Alphs" served as editor of the HILLTOP NEWS and business manager of the SOUTHERN ACCENT.

The membership of ODK includes brothers Price, Tatum, Randolph, Ellis, Stooke, Morgan and Hearn, while Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities picked brothers Stevenson, Stooke, Randolph, Tatum and Price.

The All-Sports Trophy was captured this year by Alabama Iota.

The social life was especially full this year. The Sweetheart, Horror, Lake and house parties were a few of the social functions in the life of Alabama Iota.

For the third straight year a "Sig Alpha" has been awarded the Rotary Scholarship to study abroad. This year's winner was Barnes Tatum.

Theta Chi

Beta Xi Chapter

The youngest of Southern's fraternities, Beta Xi Chapter of Theta Chi, originated in 1942 as a result of the merger between Beta Kappa and Theta Chi Fraternities.

This year has been one of the chapter's most successful in many respects. On campus Theta Chi's held the following offices: Jim Herren, president of Theta Chi Delta; Jim Patterson, treasurer of ODK; Jim Sotterfield, editor, SOUTHERN ACCENT; John Woodham, head of Honor Council, president of Phi Sigma Iota; Eddie George, John Slaughter, student representatives, S. A. G. In addition to this Theta Chi had brothers to serve in almost all campus organizations.

Brothers May, Herren and Slaughter were tapped into ODK to join brothers Patterson and Woodham. Brother Swinson Schipmon won the Robertson Athletic Award, and Brother Woodham received the first Henry T. Shanks Memorial. Brothers Patterson, Woodham and Satterfield were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Theta Chi was the winner of the Scholarship Cup for Winter Quorter.

On the social calendar were such events as the Christmas Ball, where Miss Sonja Shealy was crowned "Dream Girl for 1960"; "Red and White Ball"; "Rebel Reunion"; houseparty to Double Oak in addition to many drop-in parties.

The council is composed of representatives from each of the groups which participate in intramural sports.

Such sports as touch football, volleyball, basketball, swimming, ping-pong, paddleball, badminton, tennis, horseshoes and softball provide a varied program of individual and team sports in which hundreds of students may take part in some way.

Birmingham boasts the biggest . . . and the best

In size: the biggest. In quality: the best. In name: American Cast Iron Pipe Company. From its Birmingham plant roll hundreds of thousands of feet of cast iron pipe annually. Chances are, the water you drink and the gas you use come to you via American Cast Iron Pipe . . . for in the pipe that rates No. 1 for service, the name AMERICAN rates No. 1 for quality. And, in tubular steel products another name — ACIPCO — stands equally high for centrifugally spun steel tubing. Serving the nation and the world, American Cast Iron Pipe Company is proud of its part in putting Birmingham on the map as the leading source for cast iron pipe and tubular steel products.
